MICHAEL J. STEWART

Welcome to Forman Christian College (A Chartered University):
You are about to discover an extraordinary community that is characterized by its learning environment, diversity, excellence in service and commitment to its values of discipline, justice and respect.

Dr. James A. Taylor

Our highly qualified faculty and staff are dedicated to achieving excellence in teaching and support to more than 3,500 students who come from across Pakistan and abroad. Our 30 student societies will provide you opportunities for personal growth, while our international education programs will open doors for transformative experiences.

We place special emphasis on building an inclusive community that produces an environment that is safe and friendly and makes education a joy for everyone. You will find people here who share your passion for knowledge, and for making a difference in the society.

Our campus boasts beautiful buildings and grounds, but apart from that, you will find that there is a wide range of activities going on at FCC. No matter which region you come from, we promise you a variety of eye-opening experiences.

ATHLETICS

A large crowd of people, mostly young adults, are gathered in a grand hall with high ceilings and large arched windows. They are looking towards a large screen at the front of the hall, which displays a cityscape. The atmosphere appears to be a formal event or exhibition.
